Prayer of the Week

THE REV. HERBERT W. SPROWLS
Northwood Christian Church

REV. SPROWLS

OUR Father in heaven, who has created the world as a dwelling place for thy people and hast given us both the power and the desire to utilize that world for our good, teach us what is the highest good.

Thou art aware of our struggle for supremacy of self; altogether too often we interpose our wills and make them supreme to the wills of others and thine own. Lead us over the long road of self discovery—driving us to the stirring conclusion that it is not the way of self assertion but of the loss of self.

May we forget ourselves through the love of our work, our interest in other people, our devotion to thy will and in this way discover that enjoyment of life which, if deliberately pursued, eludes us. Teach us that the submersion of self in concern for others leads us to the discovery of our true selves and that the search for happiness begins not in hunting for it but in creating it as we seek to fit ourselves for thy good and not for ourselves alone.

Continue to bless the merciful, the pure, the peacemakers and those who hunger after righteousness that they may be filled with opportunity to serve and satisfaction in the service. To the end that all nations may come to know the riches of blessing, we seek thy favor upon all powers, great and small, that true blessedness may be the lot of all who seek first the kingdom of God. May the Spirit of Christ lead us, for we pray it in His name.

B. Sanders and Mrs. Forrest Fischer.

Pre-primary through high school classes will be offered as well as a nursery for children through three years of age.

A Timely and Startling Message

IT WAS SAID in the long ago that we brought nothing into this world and that we shall take nothing out. That is true for all material goods. It is false in the realm of the spirit. You and I are writing day by the day the story that must forever be our history. We are garnering the harvests of the years and storing them in the granaries of heaven. As women and men come to the closing hours of life on the earth, they gather up the "fruit of the spirit." Love and joy and peace and longsuffering are not material. They are eternal goods.

HOW RICH ARE WE? When we stand before the heavenly cashier and ask for a statement, what will the little card carry as our record? Shall we hold in our hands a blank white card, with a dark background? Will the servant of the Most High say that our account stands at zero? How dreadful, when we discover we have been working and living for naught! But why wait? Most of us can guess what the bank account really is. Let's face that question now, for tomorrow we must know the final statement. Shall I make sure of my holdings in the divine treasure house? What is my harvest?

You In The Church . . . The Church In You
Form a combination for good. We should attend church regularly. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the CHURCH. Be faithful. Be a Churchman!
